

Guest Lecture on Ethics in Social Science Research

11th April 2017 (10 AM to 3 PM)

Amity Institute of Behavior and Allied Sciences organized one day guest lecture on Ethics in Social Science Research on 11th April 2017. The guest lecture was delivered by Prof. Neera Agnimitra, Professor and Head, Department of Social Work, University of Delhi. The program was attended by 90 UG and PG students of Amity Institute of Behavior and Allied Sciences. Prof. Archana Shukla, Director of AIBAS, welcomed the guest and Prof. Padmakali Banerjee inaugurated the function officially. Prof. Agnimitra started her talk on the current state of social science research in India and abroad. The speech emphasized the growing importance of social science research in the changing socio-cultural and political scenario. Further, speaker, Prof. Agnimitra talked on the importance of ethics in different phases of social science research. The organizational set-up of Ethical Review Board of the Universities and educational institutions were explained by the speaker. The documental proofs required for ethical approval and its compliance with the regulations bodies/associations were also described by the speaker. The lecture was concluded by vote of thanks by Prof. Rishipal, Head, AIBAS.