Workshop on “Body Language and Hand shake”
13th April 2017

Amity Institute of Behavioural and Allied Sciences organized a one day workshop on “Observation Methods” for its UG and PG students on 31st March 2017. The session was conducted by Dr. Meeta Malhotra. Workshop was inaugurated and addressed by Prof. Padmakali Banerjee, Pro Vice-Chancellor and Dean Academic. Body language refers to the nonverbal signals that we use unconsciously for communication. According to experts, these nonverbal signals make up a huge part of daily communication. Dr. Meeta Malhotra explains that unlike many body language cues that we analyze when we meet someone for the first time, the handshake involves physical contact. Dr. Meeta giving the participants hands-on practical exercises.
