NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON FASHION BUSINESS 2017

The National Conference on Fashion Business was held in Amity University, Gurgaon on the 10th of April, 2017. The conference was organized by Amity School of Fashion Design and Technology, Gurgaon in collaboration with TAI-Delhi. Distinguished guests from industry and academia graced the occasion. The conference was divided into two panel discussions covering two distinct aspects of the Fashion Business: Impact of Skill and Entrepreneurship Development and Impact of Changing Economic Scenario.

The event started with the felicitation of the students of ASFDT by TAI for their contributions held in previous events. This was followed by welcoming of the dignitaries with saplings.

The panel discussions began after this. Each panel discussion had four speakers and a moderator and lasted for about an hour. In between the panel discussions, the collection of a young entrepreneur who also happens to be a second year student of ASFDT was showcased in order to promote the idea of Fashion Business. This was followed by the felicitation of the Chief Patron, Patron and Convener of the Conference by TAI. The event was concluded by presentation of token of Appreciation to all the dignitaries and a vote of thanks was presented by the department of ASFDT.

Panel Discussion-1

The topic of discussion was the Impact of Skill and Entrepreneurship Development. The speakers were 1. Ms. Deepti Pant, Executive Director, Design Innovation Academy 2. Mr. Chahat Girdhar, Coordinator, North India, PVR Skill Central Pvt. Ltd. 3. Ms. Reena Nigam, Coordinator, Amity Skill Institute 4. Ms. Sapna Singh, K R Mangalam University, Gurgaon. The moderator for the discussion was Mr. Pankaj Kapoor, Chairman, Park Non Woven Group of Companies.

The main highlights of the discussion were the importance of learning job specific skillsets over a degree for the students who are going to enter the industry and imparting business oriented skills to design students in order to make them successful entrepreneurs in the future. Also, the necessity of learning skills like embroidery, knitting etc that were prevalent in our society a few generations ago but has lost its significance in today's world due to easily available machine made substitutes was highlighted in the discussion.

Panel Discussion-2

The topic of discussion was the Impact of Changing Economic Scenario. The speakers were 1. Mr. Ashwani Sharma, Ex Deputy General Manager, IFCI Ltd 2. Dr. Tamana Chaturvedi, Indian Institute of Foreign Trade 3. Mr. S. C. Jain, Ex General Manager, National Textile Corporation 4. Mr. Vikas Bhargava, Founding Partner, Ichiban Corporation. The moderator for the discussion was Mr. Ravi Bhushan Chowhan, Owner, Essential Elements.

The main highlights of the discussion were how the economic scenario has changed in India post independence and also the changes that have come in the textile and apparel industry of India over the decades. The conclusion drawn form the discussion is the disposable income of Indians is growing at a fast rate and the future is bright for the apparel and textile industry. Also, e-commerce is in a boom and the garment sector is one of the highest revenue generating industry in this arena. Another key point discussed was the growing trade relationship of India with foreign countries and how entrepreneurs can take advantage of this opportunity.
