Bachelor of Travel and Tourism Management students of 1st semester, Amity School of Hospitality visited Heritage Transport Museum, Taoru - Gurgaon, India. The perfect place for the travel tourism students to learn, explore about the various forms of transport. The mechanized audio players were provided to the students for the tour of the museum and the tour was followed by a documentary for 40 min.

Objective: The main objective behind the visit:

- To understand about the aspects of heritage and Museum tourism.
- To conserve the various forms of transport used while childhood to old age .

Outcome: The students of Amity School of Hospitality learnt about the heritage transport products. This made them to learn more about museum studies also.
