Details : ASH has partnered with Hem Associates to extend real time training opportunities for the students of Amity School of Hospitality.

These activities were initiated and coordinated by Chef (Dr.) Kunal Seth.

Objective : The main objective is to offer an opportunity to the students to understand and achieve 'Guest Delight', which is of prime importance for the budding Hospitality Professionals. This type of real time training imbibes great learning as they are learning by doing and boosts their confidence enormously.

Outcome : It has greatly helped our students to analyze guests needs and adopt measures to achieve guest Delight. They also got an opportunity to understand the importance of Protocol as they extended their services to VVIP's and Celebrities. They have also had an exposure of how to plan, manage, control and organize events.
