3.1 General Introduction of the Event

Goal Setting-

On the third day of the orientation program, under respective institution events, the Faculty of Architecture and Planning organized a goal-setting exercise for the new as well as current students. Mr. Abin Sam, an Alumni of the ASAP department was invited to enlighten the current and new students with valuable life skills, such as resilience, self-discipline, and a growth mindset.

Alumni Interaction-

'Alumni have a strong understanding of the mission of their respected institute and can support the freshers in different ways to achieve their missions and goals. Keeping this in view, another session was conducted named Alumni Speaks from Amity to Industry" by the Faculty of Architecture and Planning on 11th August 2023 from 3:30 pm to 4:45 pm (Thursday). Having an engaged alumni is one of the success factors for an educational institution. The alumni connecting with the current student is important to enrich and enhance their student life. A total of four Alumni were invited to the Alumni Speaks session. Two Alumni were from Bachelor of Architecture and the other two were from Bachelor of Interior Design.

3.2 Inspiration & Objectives of the Event-

The main aim of goal setting session was to guide the students in attaining specialization in a particular domain of Architecture, Interior Design, and Planning.

3.3 Brief about the address/talk of speakers-

Goal Setting-

Ar. Abin Sam, the principal architect of Abin Sam Architects and a national award-winning architect, defines architecture as the art and science of ensuring that our designs are compatible with the way we want to live in the modern era. He believes in the idea of information-driven design as the driving force behind his design process through careful analysis of various parameters, ranging from local culture and climate to the ever-changing patterns of contemporary life and the ebbs and flows of the global economy.

Alumni Interaction-

The session was begun with a brief introduction of the freshers with their Alumni. Mr. Harikishan Sharma and Ms. Pragya Nagar (Programme- B.Arch., Batch 2013-2018) have joined the session in an online mode for sharing their learning experiences with Amity School of Architecture and Planning, Amity University Haryana. Mr. Harikishan is a Principal Architect at WOODTECH. He shared his memories associated with the educational tour held during his study at ASAP. He also shared a few experiences on hostel life and academic life during his stay at Amity Campus, Gurgaon. He persuaded freshers to do hard work to achieve their desired goals. Ms. Pragya Nagar is working as Capacity Building Assistant at INTACH. She has shared her field and office experiences with the students. She has also talked about the role and responsibilities assigned to her by the company. The next speech began with a presentation by Mr. Tanveer Alam Ansar, (Programme- Bachelor of Interior Design, Batch- 2015-2019) founder and CEO of EL INTERIO Firm. He encouraged the students to perform group studies and to learn various software as well as projects which will increase the weightage of their CVs. While interacting with the students, he urged every student to develop some key skills which will act as their asset at the time of their placements. The next Alumni from BID was Ms. Simran Manchanda (Programme- Bachelor of Interior Design), owning a company named SM Ateliers for the last five years. She highlighted some of the important criteria that which current industry normally seeks from any candidate and motivated the students to understand the fundamentals of every subject so that after completion of their course it becomes easy for them to choose a specific field.

3.4 'Take Homes' for the Guest and Attendees

Goal Setting-

Mr. Sam welcomed the new students and shared his work experiences and achievements. He motivated students to strive for excellence in each sphere of life. He emphasized that Goal setting is essential to success. It helps students to focus on their educational journey by setting various goals or achievements. Goals also help align students' focus and promote a sense of self-mastery. The participants interacted and participated enthusiastically with Mr. Sam and raised their queries related to goal setting.

Alumni Interaction-

The freshers and current students were so much enthusiastic to see their Alumni as they were very recent seniors to many of the students. Freshers have asked a few questions Alumni related to their current job experiences. The program ended with a vote of thanks by Dr. Shashi Mehta, Alumni Coordinator, ASAP who thanked all Alumni for taking out time of their busy schedules and motivating as well as guiding the students of the ASAP Department for better carrier growth.

3.5 Future plan for utilizing the contacts developed with the Invited Guests

The session was quite successful and knowledgeable for the new students. The main inspiration is to motivate the freshers in order to develop the fundamental sub-skills for self-management such as prioritization, time management, and progress tracking. These skills will not only be important to academic excellence but also assist students' performance in extracurricular activities. The session ended with students asking questions regarding their future careers in industry as well as recent trends in Architecture, Interior Design, and Planning. Students were willing to have one further session with him.

Summary of the Event

On November 30, 2023, we have organized Alumni Meet of ASLA (Amity School of Liberal Arts) students on MS Teams from 2:15p.m. -3:15 p.m. 'Igniting Passion, Embracing Success' is not just a theme; it's a reflection of the shared aspirations and accomplishments that define us. Each one of you has a unique story, a journey marked by challenges, victories, and the relentless pursuit of your passions. It's a journey of reconnecting, reminiscing, and celebrating the spirit of our Alma Mater. The event started by the speech of our esteemed HOD, ASLA Prof. Hemant Kumar Jha, to grace us with his words. The event provided students, faculty and alumni the opportunity to experience the much sought-after feeling of belonging as they converged together in a single platform.

Outcome of the Event with Time Line (Proposed/Achieved)

The event provided students, faculty and alumni the opportunity to experience the much sought-after feeling of belonging as they converged together in a single platform. The alumni meet had a great turnout. The event made sure that each alumni felt absolutely embraced and enveloped in a spirit that was nothing but blissful. Through its efforts, the event catered to the enthusiasm of all, leaving them with fond memories and good impressions.

3.1 General Introduction of the Event

Students of BSc.A&VG, BAJMC Sem 2 and 4, MAJMC/2nd Sem attended the event. We organised this event to facilitate imparting of industry knowledge and opportunity for growth in the rapidly evolving i-gaming industry.

Objectives of the Event

Networking: Facilitating the student body to interact with an I-gaming consultant as we have gaming enthusiasts amongst our students.

Opportunities: Among the enthusiasts within the i-gaming industry create a bond with the students to nurture them and foster them.

Community building: Create a sense of community and camaraderie amongst alumni and present students.

3.2 Brief about the address/talk of speakers

The event started off with a small introduction of Mr. Gourav Pilania and his work. Professor (Dr.) Sumit Narula, Director of the Amity School of Communication welcomed the guest speaker. All students of Amity School Of Communication and Faculty were present in the audience. Professor (Dr.) Pooja Rana welcomed the students and sincerely expressed her happiness to witness her former student bring glory. Mr. Gourav graduated from BA Journalism & Mass Communication 2015-2018 batch at Amity University Haryana. Mr. Gourav who now works as a successful I-Gaming consultant briefed the students of Journalism and Animation on I-Gaming and his role as a consultant.

After graduating and working for different content providers over a period of time he joined Fantasy Sports Gaming company. He went into great lengths on explaining how much effort goes into making a single game that people play with. During his interaction with the students he touched on the importance of building one's portfolio, the importance of networking, to be open to challenges and change and questioning what one doesn't understand.

He had also been featured in Forbes India and also attended several online gaming summits as a guest speaker, apart from that he also participated in panel discussions within India and Overseas. Mr. Gourav gave the students a glimpse of the real world of Media. He advised students to reach out and connect as to find their way in the media. It was an overall friendly interactive session which also offered opportunity options to the students for internships. At last, Professor (Dr.) Esha Jainiti, Additional Director of Amity School Of Communication graciously delivered the vote of thanks.

Respected Madam,

It is my immense pleasure for giving me the opportunity to share my experience on an interaction between I-Gaming expert- content writer, Gaurav Pilonia. Who was cordially invited as the guest/ alumni to address the gathering of the whole ASCO department. This event was organised by the ASCO department at Amity University of Haryana.

It was a wonderful experience. Personally, I got to learn that lot of effort is gone just to make a single game, that we like to play. This workshop also gave an insight on:

1. how to build your portfolio.
2. networking is the key
3. Questioning which you don't get to understand
4. be open to challenges and changes.

With this i would like to conclude my feedback by expressing my immense gratitude towards Mr. Pilonia and the whole ASCO department for organising such events which help to us students guide on which path we should look forward to. And help us to use these practical skills to use.

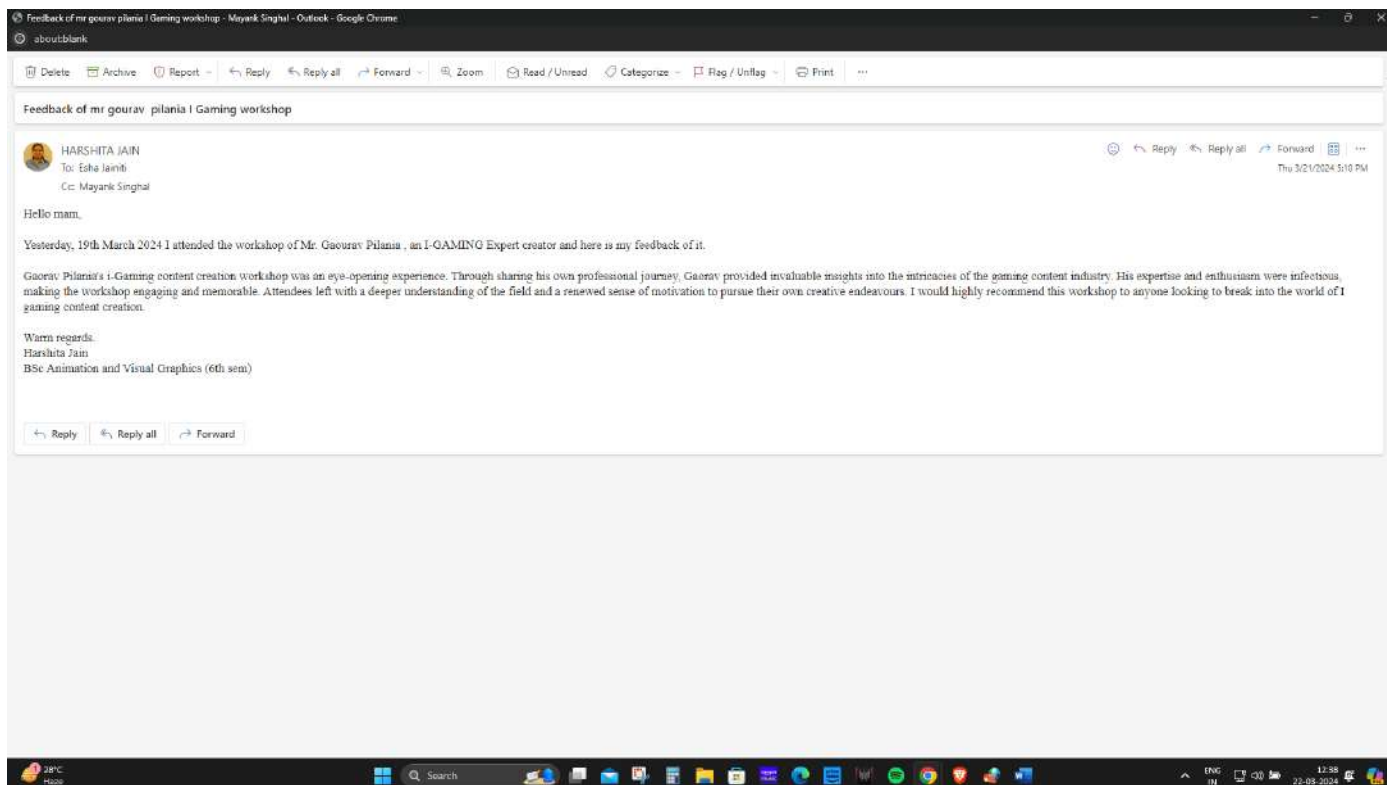

Thank you!

Warm Regards,

Ananya Paul

Advocate Bisht noted a significant milestone in criminal law reforms, where terrorism was formally defined and made a distinct offense for the first time. This development marked a crucial step in addressing modern security challenges.

He also discussed a notable shift in focus from reactive to proactive measures in the new legislations. While the Criminal Procedure Code initially lacked emphasis on crime prevention, recent reforms prioritize preventive strategies alongside punitive measures. Mr. Bisht highlighted the introduction of ‘Community Service’ as a form of punishment under new legal frameworks. He elaborated on how this approach aims to promote social responsibility and rehabilitation while addressing the retributive aspects of traditional sentencing. Drawing a contrast between old and new laws, he discussed the evolution from retributive justice to restorative justice principles. He emphasized the importance of repairing harm, addressing root causes, and fostering reconciliation in modern criminal justice systems.

The lecture concluded with an interactive session where attendees had the opportunity to pose questions, share insights, and engage in discussions with Advocate P S Bisht. The Q&A session facilitated a deeper understanding of the nuances and implications of recent legal reforms in criminal laws.

Vote of Thanks:

We extend our gratitude to Advocate P S Bisht for his informative and thought-provoking lecture, which contributed significantly to our understanding of recent legal developments in criminal laws. The Vote of Thanks was proposed by Prof. (Dr.) Ajay Kumar Bhatt, Director, Amity Law School.

Outcome Report (Event/Activity Organized @ AUH)

1. General Information

Date: 05.04.2024

Event Type: Alumni Interaction

Venue: Conference hall and MDP Room, A Block

Organized by (School): Amity Institute of Biotechnology (AIB), AUH

Alumni: 3

Speaker : Dr Jyoti Tanwar (AIB Alumni)

Student Participation*: No. of Students from AUH (Course wise):- 30

Faculty Participation*: 5

Event Coordinator(s) with designation: Dr. Gargi Bagchi (Professor), Dr. Kaustav

Bandyopadhyay(Assis. P), Dr. Jinny Tomar (Assis. P), Dr Nitai Debnath (Assoc. P), Dr Sangeeta

(Assoc. P), Dr. Sarika (Assi. P), Dr Shweta (TA)

2. Outcome of the Event with Time Lines (Proposed/Achieved)

Envisaged Outcome	Tangible/Intangible	Achieved/Proposed	Target date & responsibilities (if proposed)	Details of outcome
1. Outcome related to Academia Connect
a) Collaborations for Research Papers / Conference Papers/ Book Chapter etc.				Students were enlightened with the skills to develop scientific writing practices.
b) Collaborations & MOU for Research Guidance [PhD, PG & UG (summer training, Dissertation)] & Projects/Use of Instruments etc.				Students queried and got answered about the opportunities to join ICGB and RCB as intern and PhD student.
c) Collaboration for Funded Projects				NA
2. Outcome related to Industry Connect
a) Placement				Opportunities were discussed
b) Collaborations for Research Papers
c) Collaborations & MOU for Research Guidance [PhD, PG & UG (summer training, Dissertation)] & Projects/Use of Instruments
d) Collaboration for Funded Projects
3. Outcome related to Society Outreach
a) Benefit to society in terms of Health & Hygiene				Awareness of skin pigmentation and possible reasons were discussed in detail.

				Alumni-Student communication was built for long run collaboration.
b) Benefit to society in terms of Education	Tangible	Achieved		Students got exposed to their seniors as their future and possible doubts at the moment and for long time ahead.
4. Outcome related to Students Learning & Grooming
Students got a peek into the exciting field of mol biological research and its implications for biotechnology during the session. They were encouraged to pursue their own biotechnology endeavors after leaving campus, having been inspired by the organization's dedication to scientific excellence.
5. Any other students enjoyed the informal session with alumni and also tied friendship relation ahead.

3.1 General Introduction of the session

Amity University of Biotechnology (AIB), AUH organized an Alumni interaction session. Program started with the welcome address by Dr. Sumistha Das and Dr. Shweta Singh. The interaction was designed to guide and motivate the students to take up the correct careers with full seriousness and in the right spirit. At 11:00am the session started, students along with the faculty were gathered for an introductory meeting. The speaker, Mrs. Jyoti, gave a brief overview of her career experience, emphasizing her founding ideals and significant achievements in research. During the meeting, the alumni shared their experience in the outside world, which they faced after stepping out of the institution with the students. She gave a brief overview and discussed the various research areas. Dr. Jyoti Tanwar also mentioned the different internship as well as Doctoral opportunities.

3.2 Objectives of the Session

- Enlighten the students with cutting edge research of medical and biotechnological interest.
- Dr Jyoti Tanwar delivered her recent work entitled 'Mitochondrial Calcium dynamics is a critical regulator of skin pigmentation'.
- Career planning and avenues open for B. Tech., MSc, BSc, and M. Tech. graduates.
- Opportunities available for pursuing higher education and research.
- To mentor and channelize the efforts of the students seeking better opportunities to learn and grow.
- Contributed to helping students in their personal development by supporting them through technical guidance.

3.3 Overview of the Session

Mitochondrial calcium (Ca^{2+}) sensor that plays a critical role in the store-operated Ca^{2+} entry (SOCE) pathway and thus play a huge role in skin pigmentation. These regulates a variety of physiological processes and contributes to a plethora of pathophysiological conditions. However, molecular mechanisms driving STIM1 expression remain largely unappreciated. The group recently reported that STIM1 expression augments during pigmentation. Nonetheless, the molecular choreography regulating STIM1 expression in melanocytes is completely unexplored. Here, authors characterized the molecular events that incorporate and regulate mitochondrial calcium sensor during pigmentation. Speaker demonstrated with couple of silencing and knock out mechanisms that physiological melanogenic stimuli correlate with α -melanocyte stimulating hormone (α MSH) increasing STIM1 mRNA and protein levels. Taken together, they have identified a novel physiologically relevant molecular pathway that transcriptionally contributes to skin pigmentation.

Followed by talk, Dr. Jyoti answered all the scientific queries generated from students and faculties. An hour-long session continued between alumni, students and faculties for different aspects of career opportunities in research as well as industry. Also start up possibilities and existing examples from AIB alumni were also enlightened for students to find their independent ventures.

3.1 General Introduction of the Event:

The visit of distinguished Alumni of Amity School of Earth and Environmental Sciences (ASEES), Ms. Bharti Sharma was impromptu, on 15th April 2024. It was very fruitful for the new students of Sem II as they had a chance to interact and ask questions regarding their doubts and aspirations of the course and the career direction. The meeting was successful in motivating the students to pursue their dreams and reach their goals.

3.2 Inspiration & Objectives of the Event:

The most important aspect of the activity was to provide a live example of the successful career of the students pursuing Earth Science course and enlighten them of the future prospects. This also helps to bring Alumni students to the University and connect by contributing their time to participate in activities of the university, mentoring students, leveraging their contacts to support university administration, faculty and students in their various endeavors.

3.3 Brief about the address/talk of speakers:

Ms. Bharti Sharma met Head of the Department Dr. Kushagra Rajendra and Associate Professor Dr. Deepika Pandey. Dr. Deepika Pandey addressed the BSc Earth Science students about the various career prospects in Earth Science and introduced alumni, Ms. Bharti Sharma. The guest Bharti Sharma detailed her journey from a student to a successful entrepreneur, she also answered various questions put up by the enthusiastic students and cleared their doubts. It was decided that regular alumni events, workshops, and mentoring programs would be organized to facilitate continued networking and collaboration. The alumni expressed her willingness to contribute back to the institution.

3.4 'Take Homes' for the Guest and Attendees

Meeting an alumni offers networking opportunities, connecting recent graduates with established professionals and helping people pursue career changes. Alumni settled in various parts of the world may offer online career counseling or host virtual networking events with tips for job interviews. Meeting alumni, definitely works as refreshment for everyone as they get to revisit their old golden days and inspire young minds.

3.5 Future plan for utilizing the contacts developed with the Invited Guests

In future, the guest can provide services to the University through her organization, absorb pass out students in her company.

Summary of the Event

On April 18, 2024, we have organized Alumni Meet of ASLA (Amity School of Liberal Arts) students on MS Teams from 2:30p.m. -3:45 p.m. 'Unite, Inspire and Succeed' is not just a theme; it's a reflection of the shared aspirations and accomplishments that define us. Each one of you has a unique story, a journey marked by challenges, victories, and the relentless pursuit of your passions. It's a journey of reconnecting, reminiscing, and celebrating the spirit of our Alma Mater. The event started by the speech of our esteemed Director ASLA Prof. Hemant Kumar Jha and HOD, ASLA Prof. Hemant Kumar Jha, to grace us with his words.

The event provided students, faculty and alumni the opportunity to experience the much sought-after feeling of belonging as they converged together in a single platform. The alumni meet had a great turnout. The event made sure that each alumni felt absolutely embraced and enveloped in a spirit that was nothing but blissful. Through its efforts, the event catered to the enthusiasm of all, leaving them with fond memories and good impressions.

3.1 General Introduction of the Event –

Amity School of Hospitality (ASH) organized “Alumni Activity” on 18/04/2024 between 12:30-13:30 PM. A distinguished entrepreneur Alumni of ASH, Chef Shashwat Bishnoi, owner of Khir Ganga Restaurant in Spain was invited to speak about ‘New Startup: Do’s and Don’ts’. The faculty coordinators were Dr. Kunal Seth – Professor, Dr. Vinod Kumar Chauhan – Assistant Professor & Ms. Poonam Yadav – Executive Assistant. The objective to conduct this event was to make ASH students gain a lot of information about do’s and don’ts of a new startup. A total of 36 BHM and BTM Students of ASH participated in this event. Chef Shashwat Bishnoi said that starting a new startup is an exciting but challenging endeavor. Here are some general do's and don'ts to keep in mind:

Do's:

1. Research and Validate Your Idea: Make sure there is a demand for your product or service by conducting thorough market research and validating your idea with potential customers.
2. Create a Solid Business Plan: Outline your business objectives, target market, competition analysis, marketing strategy, financial projections, and more in a detailed business plan.
3. Build a Strong Team: Surround yourself with talented individuals who complement your skills and share your vision. A strong team is essential for the success of your startup.
4. Focus on Customer Experience: Prioritize providing excellent customer service and delivering value to your customers. Happy customers can become your best advocates and help you grow your business.
5. Stay Agile and Flexible: Be open to feedback and willing to adapt your business model or strategy based on market changes and customer needs.
6. Manage Finances Wisely: Keep a close eye on your finances and manage your cash flow carefully. Stick to a budget and avoid unnecessary expenses, especially in the early stages of your startup.
7. Build a Strong Online Presence: Leverage digital marketing channels such as social media, content marketing, and search engine optimization to increase your visibility and attract customers.
8. Network and Collaborate: Attend industry events, join startup communities, and network with other entrepreneurs. Collaboration and partnerships can help you reach new audiences and grow your business faster.
9. Stay Persistent and Resilient: Building a successful startup takes time and effort. Stay persistent, learn from failures, and keep pushing forward, even when faced with challenges.
10. Stay Legal and Compliant: Ensure that your startup complies with all legal and regulatory requirements. This includes registering your business, obtaining necessary licenses and permits, and protecting your intellectual property.

Don'ts:

1. Don't Rush the Launch: Take the time to properly plan and prepare before launching your startup. Rushing into things without adequate preparation can lead to costly mistakes.
2. Don't Ignore Feedback: Listen to feedback from customers, mentors, and advisors, and use it to improve your product or service. Ignoring feedback can stunt the growth of your startup.
3. Don't Try to Do Everything Yourself: Delegate tasks and responsibilities to your team members and focus on your strengths. Trying to do everything yourself can lead to burnout and hinder the growth of your startup.
4. Don't Underestimate the Importance of Marketing: No matter how great your product or service is, it won't sell itself. Invest time and resources into marketing and promoting your startup to reach your target audience.
5. Don't Neglect Your Health and Wellbeing: Building a startup can be stressful and demanding, but it's important to prioritize your health and wellbeing. Make time for exercise, relaxation, and spending time with loved ones.
6. Don't Overspend on Unnecessary Expenses: Be frugal with your spending and prioritize investments that will help grow your business. Avoid unnecessary expenses that don't directly contribute to your startup's success.
7. Don't Overpromise and Underdeliver: Manage customer expectations and only make promises that you can keep. Building trust with your customers is crucial for long-term success.
8. Don't Fear Failure: Failure is a natural part of the startup journey. Instead of fearing it, embrace failure as an opportunity to learn and improve. Use setbacks as motivation to keep moving forward.
9. Don't Neglect Legal and Compliance Matters: Ignoring legal and compliance issues can have serious consequences for your startup. Make sure to seek legal advice when needed and stay up-to-date with relevant regulations.
10. Don't Lose Sight of Your Vision: Stay true to your vision and mission, even when faced with obstacles or criticism. Your passion and commitment to your startup's purpose will inspire others and drive your success.

3.2 Inspiration & Objectives of the Event - To make ASH Students aware about the do's and don'ts of a new startup.

Outcome Report(Event/Activity Organized @ AUH)

1. General Information

Date: 22/04/2024
Event Type: Expert Lecture
Event Title: Semiconductor Chip Design, Manufacturing & Ecosystem
Event Theme: NA
Venue: AUH (Online)
Web/Video Link of the Event: <https://youtu.be/gpHPqiKRIS8>
Organized by: Department of Electronics and Communication Engineering, ASET, AUH
In collaboration with: TSMC, Taiwan Event Level: National
Student Participation*: No. of students from AUH (Course wise):- 88
Faculty Participation*: No. of Faculty Members from AUH (Deptt. wise):- 11
Participation from outside AUH*: No. of Students & Faculty Members- 10
(Enclose attendance sheets in given format)
Event Coordinator(s) with designation: Dr. Neeraj Gupta; Associate Professor, ASET
Details of Expert/Speaker/Resource Person/Judge:

SN	Country Name	Expert Name	Organization Name	Designation	Specialization	Contact No.	E-mail Id	CV of Expert (Yes/ No)	Major Areas where Amity can Collaborate with expert	Recommended by
1	Taiwan	Ms. Apoorva Sood	TSMC, Taiwan	R&D Engineer	N2 Technology	9560029158	Apoorva sood07@gmail.com	On request	Semiconductor devices, N2 technology	Dr. Neeraj Gupta

Criteria of Inviting Resource Person/Judge/Speaker/Judge (Write a paragraph):

Were the guest known in advance and if yes, from what previous interaction (Write a paragraph)?

Apoorva Sood is an R&D Engineer at TSMC, specializing in N2 technology. With 5 years of combined experience at TSMC Taiwan, Keysight Technologies, and Exicom Power System in India. Apoorva holds an MS in EE from NYCU, Taiwan, and a Bachelor's in ECE from Amity University Haryana. During her master's program, she showcased her academic progress through publications in high-impact journals and active participation in international conferences such as IDEM, VVC Australia, and IEEE VLSI TSA. Her outstanding contributions earned her recognition from the Taiwanese government with the prestigious PHI Tau Phi honorary award.

Semiconductor chips are the backbone of 21st century. Chips are required for day-to-day operation. Automobile sector needs large number of chips. Recently three semiconductor plants have been inaugurated by Honourable Prime Minister Mr. Narendra Modi. After attending the lecture audiences may have better understanding of semiconductor chip design, manufacturing processes, ecosystem and become aware of emerging technologies and trends in semiconductor chip design and manufacturing such as artificial intelligence, Internet of Things (IoT), and autonomous vehicles. It could inspire students, researchers, and industry professionals to pursue innovation and entrepreneurship in the field. The participants gaining valuable knowledge, insights, and networking opportunities that can contribute to their professional development and the advancement of the semiconductor industry.

5. Event Report along with glimpses of the event(Photographs)

1. General Introduction of the Event:

The event aimed to inspire and educate participants about the Semiconductor Chip Design, Manufacturing and Ecosystem.

Inspiration & Objectives of the Event:

The semiconductor industry faces the challenges and opportunities of increased product demand in the immediate future. The growth of artificial intelligence (AI) and the Internet of Things (IoT) and the ongoing demands from the smartphone sector and other high-tech industries will place stress on the semiconductor supply chain. New solutions are needed to face these demands.

The main objective of semiconductor chip design, manufacturing, and the ecosystem is to drive technological innovation, deliver high-performance and reliable semiconductor solutions, foster industry collaboration, and contribute to economic growth and societal advancement.

Such events further the aim of AUH which research and innovation driven university. The objective was to make participants gain valuable insights from expert about semiconductor chip design, manufacturing and ecosystem, and the event served as a platform for meaningful discussions and knowledge exchange.

2. Brief about the address/talk of speakers:

Ms Apoorva Sood explained the participants about the semiconductor chip design process and laid the foundation of importance of chips. In the later part of the session, he debunked all the myths about semiconductor devices. He covered the following topics:

1. Explained about the Moore's law in semiconductors
2. Discuss about the MOSFET and its basic operation
3. The challenges faced by engineers at scaled devices
4. Semiconductor chip design process and its ecosystem
5. Applications of semiconductors in various domain of engineering
6. Finally, focus on job opportunities and challenges faced by engineers in this demanding area.

1. 'Take Homes' for the Guest and Attendees; The take home message from the lecture was introductory knowledge in the semiconductors and market trends in this domain. Innovation is not the sole domain of scientists, engineers, or entrepreneurs. It is a collective endeavour that involves each one of us. It thrives on diversity, on the collision of ideas and perspectives. Participants were encouraged to embrace their inner innovator, to ask questions, challenge the status quo, and seek out new ways of doing things.

2. Future plan for utilizing the contacts developed with the Invited Guests: To organize more such events.

3. Budget of the Event(Budget Sanctioned, Total Expenditure & Revenue Generated): NIL

3.1 General Introduction of the Event: Alumni session @ AIP

3.2 Inspiration & Objectives of the Event: The objective of event was to sensitize students/participants towards the various challenges pertaining to the employment in Pharmaceutical sales and marketing. The students were made aware of the skills required for getting placed in the said domain. However, following were some of the notable objectives of the session:

- To understand the various job opportunities in Pharmaceutical marketing
- To motivate students develop soft skills required for getting a successful placement

3.3 Brief about the address/talk of speakers:

The talk started with opening remarks by Dr Atin Kalra wherein he introduced the audience about the alumni of AIP, AUH Mr Badal Mohla. Students of AIP were informed about his academic journey from AIP and his placement into the stem cell marketing company Lifecell.

Mr Badal remembered his days at Amity University and how he is always thankful to his alma mater for everything he has achieved in his professional life. He provided students with inputs which will help them land a job in Pharmaceutical sector. Badal emphasised the importance of soft skills and how it always helps to achieve great success in job career. He also discussed the important role of liasoning with cross functional teams in corporate sector to become successful. Students of AIP asked the alumni about other career paths which they can take post their pharmacy graduation.

The talk concluded with closing remarks by Dr Sardana, Director AIP where he emphasised the importance of Alumni engagement for an educational institute. He also shared the importance of time management for students

3.4 'Take Homes' for the Guest and Attendees:

The main take home message for students from this talk was to always be motivated and perform academically well to get the best opportunities. Also, students were informed by the alumni to participate more in extracurricular activities for personality development.

Another key point which was discussed during the talk was the crucial role of resume and how an effective resume can help

What is NCAHP

The National Commission for Allied and Healthcare Professions (NCAHP) Act is an important legislation that aims to regulate and standardize allied and healthcare professions in India. It was introduced to ensure the quality and standards of education, training, and services provided by allied and healthcare professionals across the country.

The NCAHP Act was passed by the Indian Parliament to establish a national regulatory framework for allied and healthcare professions. It seeks to set up a National Commission for Allied and Healthcare Professions that would oversee the education, practice, and ethics of allied and healthcare professionals.

- To make an interactive session between alumni and the students of Fashion.

3.3 Brief about the address/talk of speakers:

Samar Chauhan, an alumna of ASFDT, Amity University Haryana, graduated in the batch of 2018-22. Her brand, "The Shy Style," debuted its 2022-23 couture collection titled "Thread of Emotion," which is currently being showcased in a retrospective highlighting her signature sequence work technique. The mesmerizing collection has captivated Bollywood actresses with its beauty. Despite her background in fashion and modelling, Samar's passion for fashion and glamour steered her towards designing. Her designs feature a harmonious blend of luxurious textures such as satin, georgette, silk, and chiffon, complemented by intricate detailing with sequins, Swarovski crystals, tassels, and pearls, adding a touch of glamour to her creations. Whether it's Indian or Western wear, her costumes exude a unique blend of sophistication and creativity. Traditional are adorned with a plethora of vibrant colours, while Western outfits embody modernism fused with elegance and creativity. Overall, Samar Chauhan's outfits epitomize her exceptional artistic talent and style.
